

Announcement

Sri Lanka Teacher Educator's Service Grade III Recruitment 2019(2020) – Limited Basis

The calling letters for the applicants, according to the list of candidates qualified for aptitude testing interview and practical examination under each subject for recruitment on limited basis to Grade III of the Sri Lanka Teacher Educator Service 2019(2020); are being forwarded mentioning the fixed times to the addresses mentioned in the applications. (Sample format of the calling letter along with the document stating the dates and times of the interview is attached here with)

All the documents should be prepared and be present at the interview boards as per the instructions mentioned in the calling letter at the times specified on the respective dates. (It is mandatory to be present at the mentioned dates and time)

A file containing the original copies of all the documents mentioned under the section 3 of the calling letter and a corresponding file included the certified photocopies of those documents should be submitted to the interview board separately mentioning the interview number and board number mentioned above. (The cover page of photocopy file should be prepared according to the format attached herewith.) All certificates/document copies must be certified as true copies.

All forms mentioned in the calling letter should be duly completed and submitted to the interview board on the due date and these forms which are to be submitted at the time of the interview will not be accepted if submitted later. It is the responsibility of the applicant to download it from the website and get the formats completed immediately.

The downloaded calling letter can be present to the interview board.